

The Sum-Power Equation

Drayan Mathematical Series

Problem

Find all positive integer quadruples

$$(a, b, x, y)$$

satisfying

$$(a + b)^x = a^y + b^y.$$

In other words, determine all positive integers a, b, x , and y for which the sum of the y -th powers of a and b equals the x -th power of their sum.